J. D. Love, who operated a dairy here a few years ago, but now a resident of Endee, was here Sunday on his way home from officers training camp where he had been for three months. He succeeded in passing the examinations and had been recommended to first lieutenantcy. He is glad the war is over but sorry he did not get to see some active service after getting ready.

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their kindness, their letters and words of sympathy, during our recent illness and death of wife and mother.

James Briscoe has returned home after being in the service of Uncle Sam for about a year. He was recruiting officer for many months and was anxious to get into something so he might go across so he made application to go to an army officers training camp. He was allowed this privilege and was sent to Camp Pike, Ark. where he made good. He was given a lieutenantcy for his splendid showing and was sent to Southern Texas and a bunch of men put in his charge. He was kept here until the armistice was signed. He then made application to be discharged and was granted his wish a few days ago.

will hold a session Friday. On Wednesday, next, from 3 to 5, the Bay View Club will entertain the other three clubs and the teachers, at the home of Mrs. Prentice, in their annual Library Day, when an offering of silver or books is made, for the benefit of our library at the High School. Every member of the clubs and the teachers are most cordially invited to attend. There will be a program, light refreshments, and a general good time.

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the County of Quay, to be held at Tucumcari on Feb. 8, 1919 to fill the position of rural carrier at Cameron and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other postoffices in the above-named county. The examination will be open only to male citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a postoffice in the said county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. This form and application blanks may be obtained from the offices mentioned above. Roy H. Smith, Local Sec., U. S. Civil Service Commission, Tucumcari, N. M.

The American National Bank held its regular annual election Tuesday. The following officers were elected for the year 1919: W. A. Foyil president; C. M. Stanfill vice president; W. F. Kirby cashier; Jeff Harrison assistant cashier; W. A. Foyil, Bassett Collins, C. M. Stanfill, Adolph Vorenberg, W. F. Kirby directors. The bank was found to be in excellent condition and the officers and directors are proud of the showing.

HEARTFELT THANKS

To our many friends we wish to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for their kindness and sympathy in our great bereavement. For it has insofar as possible helped us to bear our almost unbearable sorrow.

Our sincere wish is that all your boys will return safely home. May God bless you.

Sincerely yours,
Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kirkpatrick and son, Jack.

Harold looks to be in the best of health and the rest has done him good although he has been kept busy. He will no doubt again make Tucumcari his home.

Mrs. Sartin has returned home from Oklahoma where she had been visiting relatives and friends.

Ben Kilgore was in this week after supplies for his ranch south of Hanley.

R. M. Rogers was in this week from his farm. He reports stock doing fairly well out that way.

J. H. Welch was in from Forrest the first of the week. He reports the snow still on and sledding still good in top of the hill.

I will be in Tucumcari Jan. 23, 24, and 25 to buy mares from 3 to 20 years old, and fat. Also mules. Will make headquarters at the Adam Long Real Estate Office. B. S. RICE.

Business houses are being remodeled and business prospects are beginning to look much brighter for Tucumcari. If this big snow would get out of the way so the cattlemen could feel better and the stock saved future prospects would be much brighter than for many years.

C. E. Hunter left Saturday for Santa Fe to attend the fourth State Legislature of which he is a member from Quay county. He is not sure that he will be of much service but thought he would do all he could. A democrat don't go very far over there as there are but few of them.

Miss Pearl Blackburn came in Saturday from Dallas to nurse her aunt, Mrs. B. M. Looney, but arrived too late as Mrs. Looney died early Saturday morning. Miss Blackburn is employed as nurse in Dallas and left today for home. She will be remembered as she was employed in the Muirhead Store a few years ago.

Perry Miller, nephew of Rube and Charley Vance came in last Friday from New York on a furlough from the Navy. He has spent most of his time since enlisting on the U. S. S. South Dakota cruiser, making eight trips across the Atlantic. He has enjoyed the experience of helping sink one submarine and relates many other interesting things.

Prof. C. G. Randall, of Quay, was in town Saturday. He has received word that his brother, Fred Randall, who volunteered more than a year ago, had fallen mortally wounded in France. The message was received from a boy friend who wrote home. No official news has been received. It is hoped that he has recovered and will be able to return home.
